

Leicestershire Indoor Bowling Association

Characters

Over the past 40 plus years we have encountered some real characters of the game here's just a few, if you have any you would like to share send the details to the Honorary Secretary

Jeffrey Moore (Leicester), known as Jeffrey with a "J" and you never called him "Mate". Jeff served as county treasurer for while and was always keen to put forward his point of view.

Jack Shephard (Carlton), a professional golf caddy amongst other professions in his time with many a funny story to share which invariably included someone well known like Tony Jacklin or Bruce Forsyth.

Eric Marsden (Carlton), known as "Mars Bar" who was the county Competition Secretary for several seasons. Eric was a connoisseur of beer and felt it his duty to sample at least 8 to 10 pints during and after a bowls match.

Roger Kirkpatrick (Leicester), the flamboyant ex professional football referee famous for running backwards up and down the pitch and designing his own refereee kit, always willing to offer advice and have a chat.
